WHAT DOES THE PROGRAM REQUIRE? The drug court program is at least an 18- 24 month program based on education and lifestyle changes. Some clients begin their treatment in a residential facility. Participants are required to attend several meetings weekly and pay $30 Drug Court fees each week. These meetings include an intensive counseling program. In addition, they are required to drug test at least twice per week and attend court four times per month. A potential participant must be employed or actively seeking employment on a full time basis. Requirements are lessened as the participant achieves clean time and demonstrates success in other areas. Failure to comply with the rules of the program can result in jail time, community service, residential rehabilitation and dismissal. Participants dismissed as unsuccessful may have the balance of their probation revoked to the state penitentiary.

I HEREBY ATTEST THAT THE FOREGOING INFORMATION IS TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE. I understand that any false statements in this application may be the basis for dismissal from the program, which may result in the balance of my probation being revoked to the state penitentiary. I understand that being a part of the Drug Court entitles me to less due process rights than those of citizens who are not in the Drug Court. This can mean that I would have a shorter time span between an infraction and the sanction that the court imposes. The Drug Court seeks to impose penalties as quickly as possible after any rule or policy violation.
